

RUTGERS
NEW BRUNSWICK

SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT AND LABOR RELATIONS

Beyster Fellowships

for the study of employee ownership, profit sharing, and broad-based stock options in the corporation and society

The Beyster Fellows Program at Rutgers University invites applications for the J. Robert Beyster Fellowships and related fellowships. These fellowships will be awarded for the 2010-2011 academic year to outstanding Ph.D. candidates or post-doctoral scholars in the areas of economics, history, management, business and labor relations, law, philosophy, psychology, public policy, and sociology studying employee ownership and related ideas such as profit sharing and broad-based stock options in the corporation and society in the United States. The fellowship would permit the student to associate with several scholars engaged in this area of research at Rutgers and receive mentoring and support.

The Beyster Visiting Professorship and Fellowship will support a scholar currently holding a faculty position.

The Beyster Post Doctoral Fellowship will support pre-tenure scholars and recent Ph.D. graduates.

Two Beyster Graduate Fellowships will support Ph.D. students who are initiating or completing a thesis.

Related Fellowships

The Smiley Fellowship will support a predoctoral or postdoctoral scholar in the area of history.

The Smiley Economic History Fellowship will support a predoctoral or postdoctoral scholar in the area of economic history.

Several Rutgers Graduate Fellowships will support Ph.D. students who are initiating or completing a thesis.

An Undergraduate Research Fellowship will support an undergraduate student conducting research in this area.

Further information and how to apply:

The Fellows may be supported at their home institution or may be in residence at Rutgers University with the period and length of residency varying between July 1, 2010 and June 30, 2011. The fellowships have stipends of $25,000, $12,500, or $5,000. that can be used for research, travel, or living expenses. The Beyster Fellowships are supported by the Foundation for Enterprise Development and the Related Fellowships are supported by the Employee Ownership Foundation. Students who wish to combine the fellowship with graduate study at Rutgers must be accepted into the School of Management and Labor Relations doctoral program. For information, see: <http://www.smlr.rutgers.edu/PhD/index.html> Applicants must submit the following information by e-mail or letter by December 31, 2009: 1) A statement of no more than 1500 words describing their proposed research project including its current status and broader significance; 2) A curriculum vitae; 3) Three letters of reference (included in sealed envelopes or submitted separately by email to beysterfellowships@smlr.rutgers.edu). Address: Search Committee, Beyster Fellowships, Rutgers University, School of Management and Labor Relations, Levin Building Room 216, 94 Rockefeller Road, New Brunswick, New Jersey 08854. Recipients will be announced by March 15, 2010.

For more information or questions, please e-mail beysterfellowships@smlr.rutgers.edu or see <http://www.smlr.rutgers.edu/BeysterSmileyRutgersFellowships.pdf>