

Assistant Professor, Organizational Behavior and/or Human Resource Management

The Haskayne School of Business at the University of Calgary is seeking qualified candidates to fill a full time tenure-track position at the assistant professor level in organizational behavior or human resource management.

The successful candidate will be evaluated primarily by his or her potential to publish in top-tier journals and ability to teach undergraduate and graduate courses in the broad area of organizational behavior and human resource management. Ideally, the successful candidate will have research expertise or a strong background in the topic of leadership or management skills, but we will also consider expertise in the following areas: organizational behavior/theory, human resource management, industrial relations, or macro/strategic HRM. The ability to contribute to executive programs and to professionally interact with our business community is desirable. Applicants should have, or expect to complete, a Ph.D. before July 2011. Anticipated starting date is July 1, 2011.

Accredited by AACSB International, the Haskayne School of Business at the University of Calgary is a progressive and innovative business school with an international reputation for influencing the practice of management and leadership through quality teaching and research. With more than 3,000 full and part-time students currently enrolled in bachelors, masters, PhD and executive education programs, the business school boasts more than 16,000 alumni in 70 countries.

With a population of over one million, Calgary is one of Canada's largest head-office cities and enjoys a vibrant economic climate based on energy, high-tech, financial services, and tourism. This business environment provides a variety of opportunities for scholars. Situated in the foothills of the Canadian Rocky Mountains, the city offers excellent year-round recreational opportunities as well as family activities.

Interested individuals should submit their curriculum vitae, along with the names of three references, past teaching evaluations, and representative publications as well as unpublished papers to:
